

City of Camden, South Carolina

Part-Time City Prosecutor

The City of Camden is seeking a qualified and motivated Part-Time City Prosecutor to serve as the legal liaison for the Camden Police Department and to manage the prosecution of criminal and misdemeanor cases within the City's jurisdiction.

Position Overview

The City Prosecutor is responsible for overseeing prosecutorial operations and ensuring that all cases are handled fairly, efficiently, and in accordance with the law. This role plays a critical part in upholding the interests of justice while protecting the constitutional rights of the accused.

Key Responsibilities

- Prosecute criminal and misdemeanor offenses within the City of Camden's jurisdiction
- Serve as the primary legal liaison for the Camden Police Department
- Review police reports, charging documents, and evidence for legal sufficiency
- Appear in municipal court to represent the City in criminal proceedings
- Ensure prosecutorial practices comply with state and federal law
- Exercise sound legal judgment with fairness, professionalism, and integrity

Qualifications

- Juris Doctor (J.D.) from an accredited law school
- Licensed to practice law in the State of South Carolina and in good standing
- Prior prosecutorial or criminal law experience preferred
- Strong knowledge of criminal procedure and constitutional law
- Excellent communication, organization, and courtroom skills

Schedule & Compensation

- Part-time position
- Compensation commensurate with qualifications and experience

How to Apply

Interested candidates should submit a résumé and cover letter detailing relevant experience to Vanessa Dixon at vdixon@camdensc.org.

The City of Camden is an Equal Opportunity Employer.